Victor Sidney Griffith, Jr., of Tucson, has been awarded a hero medal by the Ralston Purina Hero Commission of St. Louis, for his heroism in saving his three year old sister from drowning in the swimming tank at the Wheeler home last spring.

With a .25 calibre steel bullet still somewhere in about the center of his brain, Hall Thomas, who shot himself at Miami, still lives at Miami-Hospital today, and, as strange as it may seem, is conscious and able to talk somewhat to his wife and the physicians.

Duncan is to have a new electric light plant in the near future, according to J. E. Allen, one of the present owners of the present system. He reports that he and his associates have purchased the adobe building located in the Head addition, from G. E. Head, and that a complete plant is to be installed there.

Miss Ella Smith became the bride of A. B. Deaver on last Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, at Duncan. The ceremony was performed by Justice of the Peace John K. Bullard, and the wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. James Smith, two miles southeast of town.

Fire originating in the basement of the Kress store, 99 East Congress St., about 9 o'clock in the evening, was carried to the second floor of the structure by an open elevator shaft, damaging the roof and second story of the building to an estimated amount of $15,000.

The famous old Walnut Grove dam in Yavapai county, which went out many years ago and resulted in the loss of several lives and great property damage, is to be rebuilt by the Walnut Grove Water Storage company, according to information received in Prescott from A. A. Moore of Walnut Grove.

Motion pictures of the city of Tucson are now being displayed at various eastern cities by the Tucson Chamber of Commerce and are attracting much favorable notice and comment.

DOUGLAS—Lightning killed a negro trooper on border patrol duty near Hachita. Deputy Sheriff Cross was passing nearby when the negro was killed, and he notified the army camp, who sent for his body.

John Lott of Silver City, N. M., has been in Arizona for the past week, soliciting funds for the erection of a tuberculosis sanitarium for colored people, which it is proposed to erect on the Gila national forest reserve near Silver City.

YUMA—John W. Towles, of the Omaha Structural Iron & Steel company, which has the contract to construct a bridge across the Colorado river at this point, is here looking over the ground. He states work on the structure will be started September 1, and will be completed about the first of the year. The construction material and a large force of builders will be sent from Omaha.

That the bulk of cotton being grown in the vicinity of Chandler is better this year than it was last, is the statement of George R. Johnson, president of the Chandler Cotton Growers' association, following an inspection of the fields adjacent to the new town.

The warring factions of the republican party have been reunited as far as Gila county is concerned. At a mass meeting of old liners and bull moosers held a few nights ago resolutions were adopted providing for the placing of but one ticket in the field and a real old fashioned love feast was held.

Mayor Adams has started out to make Bisbee a clean town and it begins to look as if the mayor would succeed. His latest edict was to the effect that profanity must not be used on the streets of the city.

Wm. Whalley of Whalley Lumber Company, of Globe, believes that he set a world's record on a recent automobile trip from Globe to New York, and return. The total mileage for the trip, with four passengers in the car, was 6181 miles, while the total transportation expenses for the entire party was but $76. The car averaged slightly over nineteen miles to the gallon of gasoline for the entire trip. Mr. Whalley figured out the expense per mile at one and two tenths cents.

YUMA—Owing to the low price of honey a great many Yuma valley aspiarists are storing their season's crop. At the present time honey is bringing 5 cents a pound or 60 cents a gallon, the lowest price for years.

R. Thane Cook, of Pratt, Kansas, has been chosen principal of the Globe High School.
